Hi, my name is Tessa.

My life is filled with lovely, beautiful and very elegant things.

Today, Mummy said I could have a lovely, beautiful and very elegant tea party and invite my friends! I'm so excited!

And guess what? You're invited too! Yay!

There are lots of things to plan, design, colour, cook, sew and make.

Are you ready?

Let's get started!

First, we need to make our lovely, beautiful and very elegant invitations! My colour theme is blue and pink!

What colour theme will you choose?

You'll also need to ask your Mummy what day and time you can have your tea party.

Be sure to include your address, phone number and RSVP date (this is the date by which your friends need to let you know if they can come or not!) on your invitation.

Here are two of my favourite tea party invitations.

Tessa's Lovely Teapot Invitations

Materials

- White cardstock or paper
- Decorative paper
- Pretty ribbon (approx. 15 cm)
- Glue
- Tessa's Teapot and Tessa's Text Templates (template on page 9)

Method

1. Photocopy Tessa's Lovely Teapot Templates onto decorative paper and cut them out.
2. Photocopy Tessa's Lovely Text Template onto white cardstock or paper and cut it out. Write the details of your tea party on the invitations and draw or colour around the edges with a pretty colour.
3. Tie a bow with the ribbon.
4. Layer each piece on top of each other and glue them together.

Tessa's Beautiful Doily Invitations

Materials

- Paper doilies (I'm using white, but any colour will look lovely!)
- Different coloured cardstock or paper (template on page 11)
- Pretty ribbon
- Pretty ribbon roses
- Glue

Method

1. Photocopy Tessa's Beautiful Doily Invitations onto the cardstock or paper and cut them out.
2. Write the details of your tea party on the invitations.
3. Wrap the doily around each invitation.
4. Tie it up with the ribbon and tie the ribbon into a bow.
5. Glue a ribbon rose to the middle of the pretty bow.
